NGAA WEST PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Jim Mohan

Well you can tell it is that time of year once again. The festive decorations can be seen everywhere. The local malls and shopping centers are alive with the sounds of Christmas carols. Yes, there is no denying it. Once again it is time for the annual NGAA Holiday Party.

As in years past, December's meeting will be chock full of entertainment and goodies. Our VP Marilyn Chryst has come up with some outstanding entertainment, the renowned Michael Farmer, who will be sure to have us all in the holiday spirit. There will be plenty of goodies and cheer to go around, so I hope you can make it.

This will be my last column as President, so I wanted to take the opportunity send out a big thank you to Bob Bentrup, for all of his hard work the last eight years as our Mailing Committee Chairperson. Like the U.S. Post Office Bob has let neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stay him from his swift completion of getting our newsletter into your hands. I also want to thank Pat Reed for accepting the job as Bob's replacement.

On the subject of transition, a few others of our stalwarts are looking to pass the baton. Jimmie Hilterbrand is looking for someone to take over his job as Vice President of Membership, and Bob Eddy is still looking for a replacement as Treasurer. The duties are posted in the next column of this newsletter. If you are interested, please let me know. Both gentlemen have done an outstanding job, but they feel it is time for someone else to take the reins, so please consider throwing your hat into the ring.

One more transition I would like to address is my own. As we come to the end of 2014, it is time to reflect on the past twelve months and think about our many blessings. Among the things I am most grateful for this past year is the support of my fellow officers and the members of NGAA West during my year as President of this outstanding organization. I couldn't have done it without your encouragement and assistance. Now is time to turn over the gavel (I guess we have a gavel somewhere) to someone I know who will do an outstanding job as your new President, Marilyn Chryst. She has done a remarkable job as Executive Vice President and I know Marilyn will continue to do great things as she takes on her new assignment.

Once again, I want to thank all of you for your support during the last year. It has been an honor and a privilege.

These NGAA West members attended the alumni day held on November 6 at the NGA West campus. How many can you identify?

NGA Campus West Welcomes Back Alumni on November 6

Jessica Daues, NGA Office of Corporate Communications

Fifty-two NGA alumni were welcomed back to NGA's Second Street facility for briefs, lunch and tours on Thursday, November 6 for NCW Alumni Day.

Alumni Day is part of an initiative to establish greater engagement, collaboration and mutual support with former NGA employees.

On this occasion NGA experts gave presentations on West facilities modernization, the agency's efforts to fight Ebola and terrorism, updates on the Targeting process and a demonstration of the Map of the World. The alumni also had the opportunity to tour the NGA Operations Center and Museum and to meet with former colleagues for lunch.

The day kicked off with comments from Chief Operating Officer Ellen McCarthy, who welcomed the alumni and provided presentations on initiatives such as the Intelligence Community Desktop Environment (IC DTE), Director Robert Cardillo's SPARK blog, portfolio management and encouraging women to pursue science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) fields.

Maintaining a strong relationship with its alumni is "critical to the well-being of the agency," McCarthy said. "It's so good to see you all here," she added. "Through you, we really get a better sense of our history, of lessons learned."

Feedback from alumni also is a valuable resource in helping NGA move the agency forward and achieve its goals and vision, McCarthy said.

For their part, many alumni said they appreciated the opportunity to visit and learn more about what the agency and their old colleagues are doing. "What I found really interesting is what NGA is doing to help fight Ebola," said Joe Pfeifer, who retired in 1998. "I don't think when I was here we even had any thoughts about doing something like that."

"In my time, the agency was very much oriented toward supporting the military," said Gordon Barnes, who retired in 1984. "It seems that we've branched out very much toward civilian requirements."

Many alumni observed that the most striking difference between the organizations that they worked for and NGA now is the use of technology. Robert Swanson, who retired in 1985, recalled that "floors and floors" of aerial photographs were needed for building charts. Now, most of NGA's work is done on computers. "The change in technology is overwhelming," he said.

Another Alumni Day was held November 5 at NCE

SEPTEMBER 2014 LUNCHEON NOTES

By Pat Wiese

Fifty-two retirees and guests enjoyed a very delicious lunch at Pietro's on Sep 24 followed by songs performed by Elizabeth LaKamp. All three entrees were given rave reviews. Marilyn Chryst led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and Bob Eddy led us in the invocation.

Before lunch, Jim Mohan introduced our guests at the luncheon - John Miller and his son, Pete; Sherry Schwaab, wife of Don Schwaab; and Linda Schmieder, wife of LeRoy Schmieder. It was good to see John again. He moved to Mesa, Ariz. after his retirement. Jim reminded us that if we want to attend NGA's open house on Nov 6, we must get our requests in by Oct 1, and that we will have a change of Director at NGA as of October 3. Also, NGAA-West is looking for replacements for the following officers: treasurer, membership, and mailing. 50/50 Winners: LeRoy Schmieder, Bob Meinhardt, Bob Eddy, Pat Reed, John Miller, Gene Sylvester (2), Dale Winters, Larry Knopf, Wells Huff, Jimmie Hilterbrand, Barb Speiser, and Gordon Barnes.

Thursday Invitational Bowling League

By Doug Nolte

This year's version of the Thursday Invitational Bowling League began its season on September 4th, again at Sunset Lanes where we've been ensconced since 2009.

Once again we fell short of an even number of teams (11) so we must include a "blind" team in our schedule. This affords a different team each week time to hone their skills against no one but themselves. However, this is not always an easy task since the league rule states that the 4-man team must come within 40 pins of its average each game. That means each bowler must bowl within 10 pins of his average each game. Many times the final scores reveal that a team has not fulfilled that requirement and they lose points on the night. So, it's not just a time when you can sit around and shoot the breeze and maybe down a few. You still have to concentrate and bowl very close to your average, or possibly better.

As of the first week of November we were nine weeks into the new season and at that time the team with the most seasoned veterans (Harry Lemakis and Jack Harmon) was leading last year's victors (The Marauders, starring Jeff Delaplain et al) by 3 points. The first half of the season will end sometime in December and it's really anyone's guess as to who will be on top at that time. Any of the eleven teams could get hot during the final weeks of the first half and come out on top. To see who does, we invite any folks who might know any of us to try this sport and come to Sunset Lanes on Watson Road on any Thursday at 4 p.m. Perhaps you'll see someone you've not seen in years enjoying themselves at this timeless sport.

Golf Group

By Doug Nolte

The NGAA West Golf Group held its annual final outing at the wonderful Whitmoor Country Club October ninth.

As is our normal ritual we let the players select their own special four-man teams for the final outing, instead of depending on the reliable computer to generate the teams as is done for the other 25 outings during the regular season. Many of the golfers look forward to this outing so they can play with their closest friends at least once during the half-year season that we manage to play; so it was with great anticipation that 134 golfers prepared for a good round of golf with friends.

Didn't happen. The weather let us down. The rains came and washed away all our dreams. What made matters worse was that the phone system was down at the course and people couldn't even call in to ask if the course was open (a requirement for us to play), or to tell those of us who were there that they wouldn't/couldn't make it even for the special luncheon set up for the day.

Final attendance tally was actually pretty good; 117 of us sat down at the noon luncheon and were treated to some wonderful food prepared by the chef(s) at this very nice facility. The only sad part was the lack of golf the final day and the normal discussions around the tables.

Our slate for next season is being contemplated right now, and it appears that we will concentrate our more upscale (private/semi private) courses on successive Mondays instead of the random way we handled it this past season, which resulted in some confusion in going from Thursday to Monday to Thursday in some situations. Again, we will strive for 26 outings, beginning about the third week in April and ending the second week in October. There will be a kickoff meeting the first week in December to lay the ground work for the new season.

Points Group

By Bob Eddy

Thirteen individuals attended the September luncheon, Dave Alspaugh, Sam Brewer, Charlie Bird, Bob Eddy, Jim Hilterbrand, Jim Huettenmeyer, Don Neubacher, John Novak, Kevin Perry, Ed Schaaf, Gene Sylvester, Dale Winters and Jim Wynn.

There were eighteen attendees at the November luncheon. They were Dave Alspaugh, Sam Brewer, Charlie Castro, Ray Dvorchak, Vern Edelmann, Frank Fearon, Jim Hilterbrand, Jim Johnson, Don Neubacher, John Novak, Kevin Perry, Jim Raby, Larry Rambo, Gene Sylvester, Danny Wells, Ed Wright, Dale Winters and Jim Wynn.

The group is for retired DMAAC/NIMA/NGA employees who want to enjoy the camaraderie. It is not restricted to Points, and several of the attendees never worked in Points. The Points Group meets at 11 a.m. the first Wednesday of each month at the Hometown Buffet on South Lindbergh. Future luncheons are scheduled for December 3, January 7, February 4 and March 4 at the Hometown Buffet on South Lindbergh at 11 AM.

Negative Engravers

By Donald Lippold

The Negative Engravers monthly luncheon was held at El Maguey Restaurant Concord Plaza, on Thursday, November 13, 2014. Attendees were John Carty, Don Lippold, Rich Egan, Larry Weisz, Ernie South, Harry Lemakis and Libby Lanning.

The next luncheon will be December 11, 2014. All are welcome. This last luncheon of the year is normally well attended, so please come.

Needle Navigators

By Monica Sharp

The Needle Navigators are finishing the year with a burst of activity.

The annual CFC quilt (shown below) was completed and tickets printed for a drawing at the end of the campaign.

Four NN members made thirteen stockings for the Landstuhl Hospital Care Project--Stitches of Love. The project goal is to send over 500 stockings to our service members. The Needle Navigators who made stockings this year are Sandi Fleming, Susan Houser, Donna Kurk, and Sandy Tunnickliff.

Six NN members participated in the annual Veteran's Day Sew-In, working on Quilts of Valor www.qovf.org, Project Linus quilts and their own projects. (Example at left.)

Members also continue to make pillow cases that are donated to charity.

The group also remembered Rose Donnell in several ways this year. Rose passed away a year ago last September. At the time of her death, the group was working on a quilt block round robin. In this round robin, each participant put together a set of requirements and possibly some fabrics in a packet. This packet was passed through the group on a monthly basis for the year. Members finished Rose's blocks and then Camille Willman, Sandy Tunnickliff, Sue Houser and Donna Kurk put the blocks together in four wall quilts which were given to Rose's family for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Rose's family gifted the group with fabric, books, patterns and notions from Rose's stash. These items will be put to good use by the members and Rose will be remembered.

Several years ago, after Susan Glass died, her husband Bobbi donated her fabric and craft materials stash to the group. There were a large number of calico prints. These prints were cut up by Brenda Walsh and put into kits to make Sudoku quilts. Three of these quilts were completed this year by Donna Kurk, Sandy Tunnickliff and Camille Willman.

Cindy Neville was part of a group of eight that made a quilt that was shown at the International Quilt Festival in Houston, TX October 29-November 2.

The quilt shown here, titled Amazing Aztec-nicolor Dream, won a BLUE ribbon in the Group Quilt category in this prestigious show plus a cash award of $1000. Cindy had another quilt in the show as well. Check out <http://www.quilts.org/winners.html> to see all the winners. These quilts are fabulous!

The meeting schedule for 2015 is as follows: Meetings will continue to be held in the classroom at Jackman's Fabric Store, 1234 North Lindbergh in Creve Couer, from 1 to 4 p.m. on the following dates: January 16, February 20, March 20, April 17, May 15, June 5, August 21, September 18, October 16 and November 13.

Membership is open to all current and retired NGA employees, spouses or friends. There are no dues. You do not need to be a quilter; if you want to learn, we can teach you.

If you are interested in learning more about the group or our projects, please contact Monica Sharp, qltr56@gmail.com 636-946-5080, or Sandy Tunnickliff froggie1955@hotmail.com 314-544-5540)

National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency Narrows search for new St. Louis site

From the St. Louis Post Dispatch in early November, forwarded by NGAA West's Jerry Lenczowski

The National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency started with six possible locations to replace its existing Western Headquarters in St. Louis, and now they are down to four.

The agency said on Monday that it has dropped two locations, the North Park development in north St. Louis County and the Weldon Spring location near Chesterfield, from consideration. The agency said after initial reviews neither of the sites meet NGA requirements.

Now, the agency will conduct environmental reviews of the four remaining locations:

- Fenton (the site of the old Chrysler plant along Interstate 44)
- Mehlville (at the Met Life facility on Tesson Ferry Road, between Interstate 270 and Highway 141)

- North St. Louis (the site of the old Pruitt-Igoe housing complex near Cass and Jefferson avenues)
- St. Clair County (site adjacent to Scott Air Force Base along Interstate 64)

The high-tech spy agency is currently located south of downtown St. Louis near the Anheuser-Busch Brewery. The agency, which employs 3,000 people at the St. Louis city location, said in June that its current complex, which dates back to before the U.S. Civil War, was outdated and needed to be replaced. A secondary location in Arnold will not be relocated, according to officials.

Next month, the Army Corp of Engineers will hold three public meetings in the St. Louis area about the relocation: Dec. 9, St. Louis Gateway Classic Foundation, 2012 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Drive, St. Louis, 4 to 6 p.m.; Dec. 10, Katy Cavins Community Center, 308 East Fifth Street, O'Fallon, Ill., 4 to 6 p.m.; Dec. 11, Crestwood Community Center, 9245 Whitecliff Park Lane, Crestwood, 4 to 6 p.m.

The environmental study is expected to take 18 to 24 months. The decision on where the facility will move won't be made until 2016, according to officials. The move won't happen until 2021 or 2022.

CORRECTION

In its September story "NGA and Scouting," the NGAA West newsletter incorrectly stated that Steve Pedone has worked in civil service, the military and for defense contractors. The sentence should have read, "I haven't been surprised, over the years of my career at NGA, to meet and work with many former Scouts and Eagle Scouts serving in civil service, the military and as defense contractors." The story also incorrectly stated that Steve's career was primarily in Intelligence. He points out, "Intelligence was not my primary role. During my career in the Air Force, the Air Force Cartographic/Geodetic Officer was a unique career field and not part of the Intelligence career field. My secondary career field was Intelligence." Steve's wife's name was misspelled. It is "Ximena." We apologize for the misstatements and the misspelling.
